Dear Sirs

Ahmad Khan (deceased)
Charles Street Car Park, (Q Park Ltd), 73 Charles Street, Sheffield

I refer to the Coroner's Report in connection with the above case. I apologise for the delayed response in this matter, which is down to an internal logging error.

On receipt of the Coroner's report last year my enforcement team established that there was no breach of planning control at the Q Park facility and that the building is also compliant with the Building Regulations. This means that there is no formal action that we can take in this case.

Nevertheless I have written to Q Park Ltd to suggest possible alterations to the building to try and prevent something like this happening again. Officers have also spoken to the Managing Director of Q Park, [REDACTED] in a bid to persuade them to take action, although we cannot insist on this.

Whilst there is no obligation on the owner's to present a proposal to the Council to better protect the parapet to the top deck of the car park I can confirm that the Planning Service is open to working with the company to achieve a solution to the problem should they chose to do so.

Yours faithfully

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Interim Head of Planning
