

JUDICIARY OF
ENGLAND AND WALES

Judges of Tomorrow, they look like you!

Wednesday 19 November 2014, 5pm-8pm
The School of Law, Leeds

To celebrate the approach to the 50th Anniversary of the Race Relations Act, the judiciary are hosting a networking event to promote greater diversity in the judiciary.

Is it for you?

- Are you a solicitor, barrister, chartered legal executive or a legal academic?
- Have no prior experience of sitting as a judge?
- Do you want to learn about the different judicial roles that are open to you in the courts and tribunals?

If you have answered YES to any of the above, then this event is for you.

What you can expect from the evening:

5 - 6pm Keynote speeches

- The Rt Hon Lady Justice Hallett DBE
- District Judge (Magistrates' Courts) Tanweer Ikram
- Mrs Sarah Gane, Judicial Appointments Commission

Chaired by: His Honour Judge Marc Dight

Rt Hon Lady Justice Hallett DBE

6 - 8pm Networking

Your chance to mingle with existing members of the judiciary in the courts and tribunals. The evening will provide a relaxed and informal opportunity to spend time learning about the life of a judge and to get advice on how to go about it if this is something you might like to consider, either now or in the future.

You do not need any prior knowledge of the judiciary to attend.

Contact: Jacqueline McLean at JudicialHRDiversityEvents@judiciary.gsi.gov.uk

Early booking is recommended as places are limited.

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS