

General Form of Judgment or Order

In the County Court at Wigan
Claim Number	C00WN246
Date	5 May 2016

WIGAN COUNCIL	1st Claimant Ref ST/CL86.176
MR NICKY AXON	1st Defendant Ref

JUDGMENT

Upon hearing the Solicitor for the Claimant and the Defendant in person who did not wish to take legal advice but who confirmed he understood the proceedings. The Defendant was sentenced to six weeks imprisonment at HMP Forrest Bank for breach of the injunction order dated 4th March 2016, in that he admitted that at approximately 3.00pm on 21st April 2016, the Respondent was associating with Joshua Hupton, Jordan Youds and another within the area edged red on the map attached to the injunction order dated 4th March 2016. In breaching prohibition 3, it was the second breach of the order and his admission of the breach triggered the activation of the suspended sentence of six weeks given by District Judge Jackson on 7th April 2016. The sentences run concurrently.
