

Register of CJC Members' Interests as at 29th October 2018

Members	Declared Interests
The Rt Hon Sir Terence Etherton	Master of the Rolls.
Lord Justice Peter Coulson	Deputy Head of Civil Justice.
Mr Justice Knowles CBE	High Court Judge.
HHJ Barry Cotter	County Court Judge.
Vacant	District Judge.
Robert Wright	MOJ.
Diane Astin	Diane is a practitioner, acting for legally aided clients, particularly in housing and Judicial review cases. Diane's work at the University of Westminster has involved assisting litigants in person as well as teaching civil litigation. Diane has been a solicitor for more than 25 years both in private practice and in the voluntary sector and has experience of several different kinds of Civil dispute resolution.
Kay Carberry CBE	Until her retirement in March 2016 Kay had been assistant general secretary of the TUC for twelve years. She is an expert in equality and employment matters, with long experience of leadership, policy development, strategic planning and delivery of complex work programmes. She has served on several government commissions and advisory bodies, including the Equality and Human Rights Commission. She was awarded the CBE in 2007 for services to

	employment relations. She is currently a commissioner of the Low Pay Commission, a member of the board of Transport for London, a trustee of the People's History Museum, a board member of TU Financial Management Services and an honorary fellow of St Hugh's College Oxford.
Nicola Critchley	Nicola founded Horwich Farrelly's specialist costs department in 2001 and has headed the team ever since. She has extensive experience of dealing with high value costs litigation, costs budgeting, appeals, fraud, technical challenges, MoJ dropouts, infant approvals, FRCS issues and bulk test litigation.
Orlando Fraser QC	Orlando's practice at 4 Stone Buildings is at the commercial end of the Chancery Bar, with an emphasis on civil fraud, and offshore work. In addition to his work in the Chancery and Commercial Divisions in London. Orlando has participated in the Bar in the Community program, is a Founding Fellow of the Centre of Social Justice, and was appointed one of two legal members of the Board of the Charity Commission by the Minister of State for the Cabinet Office in July 2013.
Jo Hickman	Jo is employed by Public Law Project. Jo is treasurer of Legal Aid Practitioners Group and is a member of Law Society Access to Justice Committee
Gareth Hughes	Gareth is Chief Executive and shareholder of Marston Holdings (Marston), the UK's largest judicial services group. Marston now recovers over £500m of debt each year on behalf of public sector and private creditors, through ethical and integrated court order compliance.
Ian Karet	Ian joined Linklaters in 1987 and became a partner in 1997. He specialises in intellectual property and technology and acts on a broad range of contentious and commercial matters. He has served on the board of the International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property and is a Trustee of the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew.

Andrew Parker	Andrew is a partner at DAC Beachcroft LLP specialising in insurance and health matters. Andrew was also past president of the Forum of Insurance Lawyers FOIL.
Matthew Smerdon	Matthew is Chief Executive of the Legal Education Foundation.
William Wood	William is an independent mediator practising as a member of Brick Court Chambers. William in the last seven years served as an elected member of the board of the Civil Mediation Council. Bill also sits as an ICC arbitrator, and mediates for the ICC as well as for the Kuala Lumpur (KLRCA) and Singapore (SIMC) panels.