

In the Kingston upon Thames County Court

Claim Number E01KT061

Between

Clarion Housing Association Ltd

Claimant

And

Dean Baker

Defendant

before District Judge Armstrong sitting in Open Court

Upon hearing from Counsel for the Claimant, Miss Conlon, and Counsel for the Defendant, Mr Bullivard and

Upon the application of the Claimant for the committal for contempt of court of the Defendant, Mr Dean Baker, the Defendant, Mr Dean Baker, admitted to being in contempt of court in that he breached the terms of an Antisocial Behaviour Injunction Order dated 30 November 2018.

Specifically, Mr Baker admitted that on 22 February 2019 he had used and threatened violence towards other occupiers of Clement House, Clements Mead, Leatherhead.

The court imposed an eight week custodial sentence suspended for a period of 12 months, on terms that the defendant comply with the terms of the Antisocial Behaviour Injunction Order dated 30 November 2018.

District Judge Richard Armstrong

5 April 2019