

Invitation

Annual Seminar for Solicitors

Friday, 27 September 2019

9.30am for 10am start - 4pm finish

University of Cambridge, Madingley Hall, Madingley, Cambridge, CB23 8AQ

Dear Colleague,

We would like to invite you to our annual seminar for Solicitors. This event helps meet your continuing professional development needs. It is also an excellent opportunity to network with colleagues over lunch and enjoy the tranquillity and magnificence of the Madingley Hall conference centre.

Speakers:

- Judge Richard Byrne, Regional Employment Judge for the South East
- Professor Owen Warnock, Emeritus Professor of Employment Law at the University of East Anglia and formerly a Partner at Eversheds Sutherland LLP

Subjects to be covered will include:

- Investigations
- Disciplinary hearings and unfair dismissal
- Directors liability for employment law breaches
- Whistleblowing developments
- Disability discrimination
- Justifying age discrimination
- National Minimum Wage developments
- Working Time Regulations
- Gig economy workers
- Judicial mediation
- Employment Tribunal procedures and practice

Please note that this list is not exhaustive and may be subject to change as new case law develops.

Book your place here or, for group bookings, phone 0300 123 11 50 or email events@acas.org.uk.

Kind regards

Acas East of England