NOTICE OF THE IMMEDIATE COMMITTAL TO PRISON
OF JOHN WARD

TO ALL THOSE WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

On 3 July 2019 I, District Judge Cridge, sentenced John Ward to two immediate custodial sentences of four weeks for contempt of court, to run concurrently. The basis of that sentence was I found it proven beyond reasonable doubt that John Ward had committed two breaches of an anti-social behaviour injunction granted by this court on 10 July 2018.

I also found that it was proven beyond reasonable doubt that John Ward had therefore breached the conditions of the 14-day suspended sentence I imposed upon him on 23 January 2019 for earlier breaches of the said anti-social behaviour injunction. I have therefore today activated that suspended sentence and ordered that John Ward serve that 14-day sentence consecutively with the four-week sentences I imposed upon him today.
