JOSHUA THWAITES

DEFENDANT

SCHEDULE OF ADMISSIONS OF THE DEFENDANT

The Defendant admits or denies the alleged breaches in accordance with the Table below:

DATE OF ALLEGED BREACH	DETAILS OF ALLEGED BREACH	DEFENDANT'S RESPONSE
29/10/2019	Maureen Conneely-Defendant shouting outside front door "We know you've complained about us...".	Prior to date of injunction.
6/12/2019	Maureen Conneely and Sarah Glendinning-Defendant and ex-partner Caitlin heard shouting at each other in corridor, banging on walls. Evidence of flooding in flat.	Defendant admits arguing with his ex-partner Wilson inside his flat. She was heavily intoxicated and asserting there was a prowler. Defendant admits his behaviour will have caused harassment alarm or distress. Defendant admits there was minor flooding from an unattended bath. Immediately turned off the taps when notified.
7/12/2019	PC 2527 Crawford-identifies apparent damage to walls inside flat. No specific details provided. Photographs of damage taken following termination of tenancy now provided.	Radiator was not fitted properly at tenancy start date. Door taken off hinges to allow sofa to be taken into lounge. The holes in the walls were caused during tenancy by Wilson when drunk. Accepts damage caused during course of tenancy.
12/12/2019	Caitlin Wilson-alleged assault involving twisting arm and pushing against wall, thrown to ground, attempted removal of phone, stamped on hand, took	Defendant denies offence. Currently released under investigation. Information received but not verified that the Complainant Wilson has shoes and phone, Wilson forced to flee address. Defendant arrested from flat by police.	retracted her statement denying that the incident occurred at all. Defendant accepts that arrest from premises by police, regardless of verity of complaint, will have caused distress to residents.

16/12/2019	Kelsey Donald-outside flat heading into town and sees Defendant next to a bush. Makes comment eliciting response.	No recollection but in any event outside the immediate area of the Derwent Mill premises. Although behaviour likely to be worrisome no indication from Complainant of any behaviour directed towards her capable of causing harassment alarm or distress.
17/12/2019	Kelsey Donald-hears shouting outside window. Sees Defendant outside. He is acting bizarrely. Sits in shelter and continues shouting generally. PC2367 Baker & PC 2527 Crawford-locate Defendant outside premises at Derwent Mill. Heavily intoxicated. Acting bizarrely. Seeing people who are not there. Arrested at scene.	Little recollection. The Defendant concedes he was present. He was intoxicated. Accepts the behaviour complained of likely to cause harassment alarm or distress to residents.
