

IN THE COUNTY COURT AT

BRISTOL

SITTING AT Bristol Magistrates Court, Marlborough Street, Bristol
BS31 3NU

ON 27 July 2020

BEFORE His Honour Judge Ralton

1. On 10 September 2019 the Claimant

Curo Places Limited

applied for injunction orders against the following Defendant

Darren Smith

2. On 10 September 2019 the Court made injunction orders against the Defendant under common law to enable the Claimant to enter the Defendant's flat to carry out a gas safety inspection.
3. On 27 July the Court found it was satisfied that it was sure after considering the that the Defendant had disobeyed the order by

1	Refusing access on four separate occasions after service of the injunction
---	--

and the Court imposed the following sentence(s) for those breach(es)

1	14 days imprisonment suspended on compliance with the injunction order on the terms set out in the committal order.
---	---

4. The sentences were based on remarks as follows:

Mitigating Features:

1	None
---	------

Aggravating Features

1	On 20 June 2020 the Court gave the Defendant a further opportunity to comply with the injunction and allow access but the Defendant refused access.
2

5. Accordingly it was ordered that

Darren Smith

be committed for contempt to prison for a total period of 14 days suspended on condition that the Defendant granted access in accordance with the order.

HHJ Ralton 27 July 2020

This form is to be sent to the national media via the CopyDirect service at alerts.service@pressassociation.com and to the Judicial Office at judicialwebupdates@judiciary.gsi.gov.uk for publication on the website of the Judiciary of England and Wales.