

IN THE COUNTY COURT AT

BRISTOL

SITTING AT Bristol Magistrates Court Marlborough Street Bristol
BS1 3NU

ON 27 July 2020

BEFORE His Honour Judge Ralton

1. On 19th May 2020 the Claimant

Stonewater Limited

applied for injunction orders against the following Defendant

Jen-ai Kwan

2. On 19th May the Court made injunction orders against the Defendant under the Anti-Social Behaviour Crime and Policing Act 2014
3. On 8th July 2020 the Defendant was before the court further to an arrest.

for allegedly disobeying the order which provided that the Defendant must not:

1	Use or threaten violence to residents of and visitors to Caldicott Clos, Willsbridge BS30 6UX
2	Engage in conduct (including banging and playing loud music) capable of causing nuisance or annoyance to residents of and visitors to Caldicott Close and the Defendant having admitted the allegations the court released the Defendant on bail and listed a sentencing hearing.

4. On 27th July the Court and the Court imposed the following sentences for those breaches

1	28 days imprisonment suspended for one year on compliance with the injunction order
---	---

2	28 days imprisonment (concurrent) suspended for one year on compliance with the injunction order
---	--

5. The sentences were based on sentencing guidelines and remarks as follows:

Mitigating Features:

1	Admission of breaches
2	First offences before the County Court
3	No actual violence
4	No threat to persons named in the injunction order
5	Element of history of ill-will
6	Dependent child

Aggravating Features

1	Threat of violence
2	Harm to victims

6. Accordingly it was ordered that

Jen-ai Kwan

be committed for contempt to prison for a total period of 28 days suspended until 26th July 2021 on condition that she complies with the injunction order.

HHJ Ralton
28 July 2020

This form is to be sent to the national media via the CopyDirect service at alerts.service@pressassociation.com and to the Judicial Office at judicialwebupdates@judiciary.gsi.gov.uk for publication on the website of the Judiciary of England and Wales.