Before His Honour Judge Wood QC sitting at Liverpool District Registry, Liverpool, Civil And Family Courts, 35 Vernon Street, Liverpool, L2 2BX on 16 June 2021.

UPON HEARING Leading Counsel on behalf of the Claimant, and Mr Philip Havers one of Her Majesty's Counsel, on behalf of the Defendant.

WHEREAS the Claimant has made a claim against the Defendant for personal injuries arising from events surrounding his birth on 2nd June 2000 in respect of which application for approval of a proposed settlement has been made by the Claimant against the Defendant in the High Court of Justice, Queen's Bench Division

AND WHEREAS the Claimant is a protected party and brings the Claim by his Litigation Friend and is further a Protected Beneficiary for whom a Court of Protection Deputy has been appointed

AND UPON consideration of the Claimant's Article 8 right to respect for private and family life and the Article 10 right to freedom of expression

AND UPON IT APPEARING that non-disclosure of the identity of the Claimant, Defendant and the Litigation Friend is necessary in order to protect the interests of the Claimant

AND PURSUANT to rule 39.2(4) and 39.2(5) of the Civil Procedure Rules and section II of the Contempt of Court Act 1981 and rules 5.4C and 5.4D of the Civil Procedure Rules

IT IS ORDERED THAT: -

1. That the identity of neither the Claimant nor the Litigation Friend nor the Defendant be disclosed.

2. That in all statements of case and other documents to be filed or served in the proceedings and in any judgment or order in the proceedings and in any report of the proceedings by the press or otherwise the Claimant be described as "C123", the Litigation Friend as "D456", and the Defendant as "FT789"
3. That the address of the Claimant and of the Litigation Friend be stated in all statements of case and other documents to be filed or served in the proceedings as the address of the Claimant's solicitors.
4. That in so far as necessary, any statement of case or other document disclosing the Claimant's name or address or that of the Litigation Friend already filed in the proceedings be replaced by a document describing such name or address in anonymised form as above and any document that is produced from the Court file shall be anonymised as aforesaid.
5. That a non-party may not inspect or obtain a copy of any document on or from the Court file (other than this order duly anonymised as directed) without the permission of a Master or District Judge. Any application for such permission must be made on notice to the Claimant and Litigation Friend, and the Court will effect service. The file is to be retained by the Court and marked "Anonymised".
6. That reporting restrictions apply as to the disclosing of any information that may lead to the subsequent identification of the Claimant or Litigation Friend or Defendant. The publication of the name and address of the Claimant or Litigation Friend or of any member of the immediate family of either of them is prohibited.
7. The provisions of this Order shall not apply to communications between the parties, their legal representatives and/or the Defendant's insurers and/or any person instructed to give legal or financial advice in relation to the claim until payment of all sums ordered in final settlement of the claim and legal costs.
8. That any non-party affected by this Order may apply on notice to all parties to have this Order set aside or varied.
9. Publication of this Order shall be published on the website of the Judiciary of England and Wales shall be dispensed with.
