Dear David Pojur,

Thank you for your correspondence dated 23 February providing your Prevention of Future Deaths report into the Benjamin Leonard Inquest.

I have noted the recommendations from the report and passed these on to the relevant Welsh Government officials for further consideration.

In relation to the recommendation for the establishment of a Public Inquiry under the Inquiries Act 2005 into the Scout Association, as this terrible accident took place during a trip organised by the UK Scout Association, the UK Government are best placed to respond to this recommendation.

I've noted you have already provided a copy of the report to the relevant Secretary of State and Minister for State within the UK Government.

Thank you once again for providing a copy of the report.

Yours sincerely,
