

HOUSING FOR WOMEN V MERVELEE MYERS

On 9 July 2024, the Defendant, Mervelee Myers, admitted six breaches of an anti-social behaviour injunction order, which was served on the Defendant on 3 August 2023.

On 20 March 2025, HHJ Richard Roberts, Senior Circuit Judge and Designated Civil Judge, extended the duration of the injunction order for two years to 19 March 2027, widened the category of persons protected by the injunction, and sentenced the Defendant to one months' imprisonment on each breach, to run concurrently, suspended for two years on condition that the Defendant obey the terms of the injunction.
