AND PURSUANT to section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 and CPR rules 5.4C, 5.4D and 39.2(4)

WHEREAS for the purposes of this order:

- (1) 'Publication' includes any speech, writing, broadcast, or other communication in whatever form (including internet and social media), which is addressed to the public at large or any section of the public.
- (2) Publication for the purpose of this Order includes any further publication (as defined in subparagraph (i) above) from the date of this Order, even if such information has derived from a previous stage or stages of these proceedings.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

2. Pursuant to CPR Rule 39.2(4), there shall not be disclosed in any report of these proceedings or other publication the name or address of the Claimant, the Claimant's Litigation Friend or other immediate family members, or any details (including other names, addresses, or a specific combination of facts) that could lead to the identification of the Claimant in these proceedings. The Claimant and the Litigation Friend and his family shall be referred to as set out at paragraph 3 of this Order.
3. In any judgment or report of these proceedings, or other publication (by whatever medium) in relation thereto:
 - (i) The Claimant shall be referred to as "JGN".

4. Pursuant to CPR Rules 5.4C and 5.4D:
- (i) A person who is not a party to the proceedings may not obtain a copy of a statement of case, judgment or order from the Court records unless the statement of case, judgment or order has been anonymised in accordance with subparagraphs 3(i) to (iii) above.
 - (ii) If a person who is not a party to the proceedings applies (pursuant to CPR r.5.4C(1B) or (2)) for permission to inspect or obtain a copy of any other document or communication, such application shall be on at least 7 days’ notice to the Claimant’s solicitor, trustee or deputy.
5. The Claimant’s solicitor shall file with the Court an electronic (PDF) bundle of the statements of case that has been anonymised in accordance with paragraph 3 above by 11 August 2025, and re-filed in the event that any statement of case is amended, within 21 days of such amendment being approved.

DATED 21 July 2025

EXPLANATORY NOTE

1. This Form is designed for use in personal injury and clinical negligence cases in which the claimant is a child or a protected party whose interests are assessed to require their identity to be kept confidential.
2. The Form assumes that the party to be anonymised is the claimant. Adjustment will be required where that is not the case; for example where the order is to protect dependant children in a claim under the Fatal Accidents Act 1976.
3. For the HMCTS computer system, the anonymised name of the claimant should be three letters. These should not be the same letter, nor consecutive letters: so avoid, e.g. XXX, WWW, ABC, PQR, etc.].
4. The heading should be anonymised in the order itself, once made, as the general provision in the Practice Guidance: Publication of Privacy and Anonymity Orders dated 16 April 2019 is for the orders to be published on the website of the Judiciary of England and Wales (as also provided at paragraph 8 of the Form).
5. The order defines the scope of 'publication' and makes clear that it is a communication which is "addressed to the public at large or any section of the public". Set out below is a non-exhaustive list of examples of communications and records which would not constitute publication within the meaning of this order (providing always that proper steps are taken to protect the confidentiality of information from being made public). In this list references to 'the anonymised party' include that party's appointed representatives and advisers, such as solicitor, Litigation Friend, attorney, trustee and deputy.
 - (i) Communications between the Court Funds Office and the anonymised party in relation to the payment of money into the Court Funds Office for the benefit of the anonymised party or the investment or treatment of payment out of such money.
 - (ii) Communications between the Court Funds Office, the anonymised party, and any financial institution concerned as to the receipt or investment of such money.

- (iii) Records kept by the Court Funds Office, the anonymised party, and any financial institution concerned as to the receipt or investment of the Claimant's money.
- (iv) Retention by all parties to the claim, their representatives, and their advisers of their unredacted files for the purposes of their continuing functions and obligations in relation to the proceedings.
- (v) Communications between the Defendant(s), their insurers, or their successors in title and their legal and professional advisers, reinsurers, HM Revenue and Customs (or its successor), the Compensation Recovery Unit or any other person required by law.
- (vi) Communications between the anonymised party's representatives and advisers in managing that party's affairs.
- (vii) Communications for the purpose of obtaining medical care, advice or treatment for the anonymised party.
- (viii) Communications by or on behalf of a paying party for the purposes of ascertaining whether the anonymised party is alive, so entitled to continuing periodical payments.
