A DJ Lacey: So, you will be aware that an Injunction Order was granted against you on 18 September 2023 and that was on an interim basis and a final order dated 3 October 2023 was made and that provided that you should be forbidden from using or threatening to use
B violence towards any residents of Pitchers, Salwayash, Bridport, Dorset, any lawful visitor of the same address, any person who was engaged in any lawful activity in that area and, and any member of the Claimant's staff or agent or contractor of the Claimant

C And for the purposes of that order violence included physical violence, threatening or intimidating behaviour and any form of abuse which directly or indirectly may give rise to the risk of harm to any person mentioned in paragraph 1.8(d) above. It prohibited you from shouting or swearing at or using abusive language or making any type of threat towards any
D of those persons and it prohibited you from causing noise nuisance, which is capable of being heard outside 16 Pitchers Way, Bridport. And for the avoidance of doubt, that included playing loud music, screaming, shouting, banging in the property and running loud vehicles.

E Now, it goes on, also prohibited you from engaging in conduct that causes or is likely to cause harassment, alarm, distress to any person and engaging in conduct that causes or is likely to cause a nuisance or annoyance to any person set out in paragraph 1.8(d) above. Now my understanding is that I know there were various breaches. Now a number of those have been withdrawn from the Claimants but there are four which remain and what I've been told is that you accept those but what I need to do is formally put those to you and you need to
F tell me that you accept them, OK?

So, the first breach was that on 20 October 2023 you harassed and shouted at Anthony Rosinger, a process server instructed by the Claimant. Do you accept that?

G Ms Reece: Yes, I accept that.

DJ Lacey: Thank you. And, and then the next breach was that on 19 November 2023 you were shouting and swearing in the street outside 16 Pitchers.

H Ms Reece: Yeah, I accept that one.

A

DJ Lacey: OK, thank you. And then on 7 December 2023 there was shouting and banging heard coming from the property and this noise could be heard outside the home and caused alarm and distress to your neighbours. Do you accept that?

Ms Reece: Yeah, I accept that.

B

DJ Lacey: Thank you. And then, finally, on 17 December 2023 you shouted towards your neighbours and their dog, and my apologies for the language:

“Shut the fuck up before I shoot you. I mean it.”

C

Ms Reece: Yeah.

DJ Lacey: OK, I’m very grateful.

D

Ms Reece: Yeah, I’ll accept that.

DJ Lacey: So, thank you for that, Ms Reece. Now it seems to me, and as I say, Ms Pattni has done several hearings, we’ve probably done more --

E

Ms Reece: Yeah.

DJ Lacey: Together, I think, and, and it, it, it seems to me that I’m very conscious that certainly throughout the lifetime of these contempt proceedings you haven’t done anything to breach the injunction. I, I will just review the file to make sure what the position is with regard to that.

F

Ms Reece: It was --

G

DJ Lacey: I’ve, I’ve got no, I don’t think you would do anything to breach it anyway, even if it is still in place, but it’s very much --

H

Ms Reece: It, I believe it was my life situation that impacted it the most --

DJ Lacey: I know.

A Ms Reece: And that's changed --

DJ Lacey: And, and I, I --

B Ms Reece: Big time.

DJ Lacey: I, I'm completely aware of that.

Ms Reece: Yeah.

C DJ Lacey: You'll be aware that whilst I didn't deal with the other proceedings that you've been involved in, I'm aware of them --

D Ms Reece: Oh.

DJ Lacey: And I know how difficult that would have been for you.

E Ms Reece: There are still some more at the moment.

F DJ Lacey: Yeah, I, as, as I say, it's to your credit that you've done nothing to breach the order or do anything else in the meantime and, and it seems to me that the agreement or, or what I've been advised is an agreement, effectively, in regard to sentencing because you have admitted those breaches, but what I'm being invited to do is, essentially, not make any penalty for the breaches that you've just admitted. And it seems to me, and perhaps I may have indicated this at previous hearings as well, that given the circumstances that that is entirely appropriate in this instance.

G I am very conscious of the fact that the whole purpose that sits behind these forms of orders is one of a rehabilitative nature, not one of a punitive nature and it seems to me that given your actions since these breaches it would be entirely wrong for the Court, in the circumstances, to sentence you to any form of punishment and therefore I am entirely in agreement with the fact that there should be no penalty on, on the breach and indeed I note that the costs are reserved. Now, of course, what I would say to you is, please make sure I don't see you back here again.

H

A        Ms Reece: No.

DJ Lacey: I know I've said that to you before but it seems to me that you are in a much better place.

B        Ms Reece: Yes.

DJ Lacey: Everyone seems to agree that. Long may that continue.

C        Ms Reece: I hope so. I really hope so.

DJ Lacey: And, and, as I say, I wish you all the very best, Ms Reece. I am aware there are, obviously, other proceedings, I, I'm not involved in those, certainly not at the moment anyway --

D        Ms Reece: I was just, yeah.

E        DJ Lacey: So, I wish you all the best.

Ms Reece: Thank you.
