COURT MARTIAL APPEALS ACT 1968

APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO APPEAL
Under Rule 154 of the Armed Forces (Court Martial) Rules 2009

MARINE D
(The applicant)

Court Martial Appeal Office Ref No: 201305763 C5
CM No: 2012CM00442

ORDER ON THE APPLICATION

THIS IS TO GIVE YOU NOTICE that the Court Martial Appeal Court has this day considered the Application of the above-named Applicant for leave to appeal under Rule 154 of the Armed Forces (Court Martial) Rules 2009 against an order lifting the reporting restriction that they should not be identified

AND THE COURT HAVING RECONSTITUTED as a Divisional Court of the Queen's Bench Division, and having granted permission to proceed with a claim for Judicial review of the decision of the Judge Advocate General lifting an anonymity order protecting the identity of the applicant, and the Divisional Court having dispensed with issue and service of the Claim Form, abridged all times as necessary and heard the claim for Judicial review forthwith.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the claim for Judicial review be allowed and the decision of the Judge Advocate General be quashed.

AND HAS MADE the following directions:

- 1. The anonymity order protecting the identity of PO55242E, Sergeant Alexander Wayne Blackman, 42 Commando, Royal Marines, known as 'Marine A' is hereby lifted
- 2. The still photographs in category 2 are to be released to the media save those numbered: 11, 12, 13 and 37
- 3. The anonymity order in relation to Marines B and C is to remain in place pending the resolution of any application to the Court to certify a point of law of general public importance and leave to appeal to the Supreme Court. Any such application to be made within 48 hours of the handing down of the Court's reasoned judgment. If no such application is made this anonymity order will be discharged
- 4. The anonymity order in relation to Marines D and E is to remain in force pending any further order by the Judge Advocate General
- 5. Reserved its reasons for the decision to date to be fixed

Counsel for Crown: Mr D Perry QC
Counsel for Marine D: Mr Andrew Langdon
